Did you know?

Carmel-by-the Sea is the incorporated name for the city commonly referred to as Carmel, derived from its saint namesake, Lady of Mount Carmel.

Carmel is known for her natural scenery and rich artistic history.

The Carmel mission was first established in Monterey, the capital of Alta California, then relocated to its present site.

Carmel was rated the “#3 Best City for Romance in the World” by Travel + Leisure magazine.

Carmel was inundated with musicians, writers, painters, and artists following the 1906 earthquake. $10 down, little or no interest, got them a home lot!

The one square-mile village has no streetlights, parking meters, or postal delivery.

Yes, we know that Carmel is dog-friendly with numerous hotels, restaurants and retail establishments admitting guests with Airedales!

Clint Eastwood, Brad Pitt, and Paul Anka are current residents.

Since our first walk in 2008, CATC has made an (almost) yearly pilgrimage to Carmel Beach with our Airedales.

Join CATC’s September 19 walk to personally experience the beauty, nature, and culture this storied village has to offer.
